

SHERMAN.

of the Old Settlers' Reunion—The Election of Officers—The Day's Sports.
J. M. Binkley Makes a Speech in the Past, the Present and the Future of Texas.

SHerman, Aug. 29.—At 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, after the old settler had exhausted the day's program, Mr. J. W. Wilhite, who has been driving a team of horses in training on the track, had his stable being out three handsome horses and gave the old folks a surprise, which they enjoyed very much, as this was perhaps the first time the kind ever witnessed by them.

Services were Dr. Morrow's chest, Dixie Crooks, named in the sweet singer of North Denison, driven by Ed. Sinalley; Ma, Grubbs' gray horse, D. W. C.
Henry's chestnut mare, Casco, was a single heat of one, and Dixie won. Time, 2:50 1/2.
J. Crooks of Denison was seemingly highly pleased at the success of his charming daughter come out winner in such good company.

To-day when the hosts assembled several speakers on the cards for talks were conspicuous for their absence.
Rev. H. J. Clarke, Riddle Deane, Jack Jennings and Col. W. S. Terrell were called upon and responded to the entire satisfaction of all present.

The members were called to come forward and enroll their names.
Among those who have passed over the dark river of death since last year were: Root Bell, A. S. Mangum, Ruth Hendricks, John A. Miller,
Melvin Austin, Cynthia DeSpain, W.
D. Davis and Sarah Gregg.

Officers were elected for the ensuing year as follows: J. D. Wood, president; W. S. Terrell, vice-president; J. P.
Loving, secretary and treasurer; Capt.
H. L. Lee, marshal; Wm. S. Holt, assistant marshal. Executive committee:
John W. Stewart, Ridley Deane,
R. E. Shannon, Ben. Despain, M. D.
L. Webster and, on motion, the president and secretary were added to the committee. They agreed to meet on Thursday and Friday before the full moon in August, 1885, at Sherman.

About 130 names were enrolled as members, the condition being twenty-one years residence in Texas.

It was announced that the after supercarnavals would consist of a general experience meeting, the farewell address by uncle Ben Christian of Whitesboro and a parting hand shake all around.

No less than 3000 people were estimated to be on the ground today, and notwithstanding the heat and dust outside, when they reached the cool shade grove every one seemed to feel comfortable and enjoyed himself.

The Mexican (cowboy) show have engaged the grounds for their show-to-morrow evening. Their stock cameup last night and the agents are out to-day hunting wild cattle, buying ponies and vicious mules, on which to practice their peculiar arts to-morrow for the entertainment of such of our citizens as have never lived about a western ranch or been present at a grand "round-up."

most respectful hearing and after he had concluded several friends assured him that his effort had pleased.

Yesterday afternoon Mrs. Jake Levy and children, with Mrs. Ed Levy and a little daughter of J. S. Kennedy were out driving with a horse that was thought to be perfectly honest and safe, but he took fright, ran away, threw the whole party out, and bruised them up considerably. Kennedy's daughter is thought to be the worst hurt. Levy's two children are bruised badly but are not seriously hurt. Mrs. Ed Levy was thought at first to be badly injured, but later accounts report her in no great danger.

Mr. C. F. Stevens of the cotton firm of Stevens & Andrews, after spending the summer on the gulf coast of Alabama, returned home yesterday to be ready for business when the necessary commodity comes into market. He reports that Thos. Forrester, Jr., with his family, will arrive from the same place in a few days.

Sidney Wilson, Esq., who has been rusticating with an old friend on a cow ranch in the Nation, came home yesterday looking as brown as a nut and wearing such a ferocious set of whiskers that his best girl had to look the second time before she recognized him.

To-day when the hosts assembled
several speakers on the cards for talks
were conspicuous for their absence.
Rev. H. J. Clarke, Riddle Deane,
Jack Jennings and Col. W. S. Terrell
were called upon and responded to
the entire satisfaction of all present.

The members were called to come
forward and enroll their names.
Among those who have passed over
the dark river of death since last year
were: Root Bell, A. S. Mangum,
Ruth Hendricks, John A. Miller,
Melvin Austin, Cynthia DeSpain, W.
D. Davis and Sarah Gregg.

Officers were elected for the ensuing
year as follows: J. D. Wood, president; W. S. Terrell, vice-president; J. P.
Loving, secretary and treasurer; Capt.
H. L. Lee, marshal; Wm. S. Holt, assistant marshal. Executive committee:
John W. Stewart, Ridley Deane,
R. E. Shannon, Ben. Despain, M. D.
L. Webster and, on motion, the president and secretary were added to the
committee. They agreed to meet on Thursday and Friday before the full
moon in August, 1885, at Sherman.

About 130 names were enrolled as
members, the condition being twenty-
one years residence in Texas.

It was announced that the after super-
carnavals would consist of a general
experience meeting, the farewell
address by uncle Ben Christian of
Whitesboro and a parting hand shake
all around.

No less than 3000 people
were estimated to be on the ground to-
day, and notwithstanding the heat and
dust outside, when they reached
the cool shade grove every one seemed
to feel comfortable and enjoyed himself.

The Mexican (cowboy) show have
engaged the grounds for their show-
to-morrow evening. Their stock came-
up last night and the agents are out
to-day hunting wild cattle, buying
ponies and vicious mules, on which to
practice their peculiar arts to-morrow
for the entertainment of such of our
citizens as have never lived about a
western ranch or been present at a
grand "round-up."

Fitch was too religious
at fruit or melons unless he knew
he had a straight record. We had
those days without asking
questions, except that

Fitch was too religious
at fruit or melons unless he knew
he had a straight record. We had
those days without asking
questions, except that

Fitch was too religious
at fruit or melons unless he knew
he had a straight record. We had
those days without asking
questions, except that

Fitch was too religious
at fruit or melons unless he knew
he had a straight record. We had
those days without asking
questions, except that

Fitch was too religious
at fruit or melons unless he knew
he had a straight record. We had
those days without asking
questions, except that

Fitch was too religious
at fruit or melons unless he knew
he had a straight record. We had
those days without asking
questions, except that

Fitch was too religious
at fruit or melons unless he knew
he had a straight record. We had
those days without asking
questions, except that

Fitch was too religious
at fruit or melons unless he knew
he had a straight record. We had
those days without asking
questions, except that

Fitch was too religious
at fruit or melons unless he knew
he had a straight record. We had
those days without asking
questions, except that

Fitch was too religious
at fruit or melons unless he knew
he had a straight record. We had
those days without asking
questions, except that

Fitch was too religious
at fruit or melons unless he knew
he had a straight record. We had
those days without asking
questions, except that

Fitch was too religious
at fruit or melons unless he knew
he had a straight record. We had
those days without asking
questions, except that

Fitch was too religious
at fruit or melons unless he knew
he had a straight record. We had
those days without asking
questions, except that

Fitch was too religious
at fruit or melons unless he knew
he had a straight record. We had
those days without asking
questions, except that

Fitch was too religious
at fruit or melons unless he knew
he had a straight record. We had
those days without asking
questions, except that

Fitch was too religious
at fruit or melons unless he knew
he had a straight record. We had
those days without asking
questions, except that

Fitch was too religious
at fruit or melons unless he knew
he had a straight record. We had
those days without asking
questions, except that

Fitch was too religious
at fruit or melons unless he knew
he had a straight record. We had
those days without asking
questions, except that

Fitch was too religious
at fruit or melons unless he knew
he had a straight record. We had
those days without asking
questions, except that

Fitch was too religious
at fruit or melons unless he knew
he had a straight record. We had
those days without asking
questions, except that

Fitch was too religious
at fruit or melons unless he knew
he had a straight record. We had
those days without asking
questions, except that

Fitch was too religious
at fruit or melons unless he knew
he had a straight record. We had
those days without asking
questions, except that

Fitch was too religious
at fruit or melons unless he knew
he had a straight record. We had
those days without asking
questions, except that

Fitch was too religious
at fruit or melons unless he knew
he had a straight record. We had
those days without asking
questions, except that

Fitch was too religious
at fruit or melons unless he knew
he had a straight record. We had
those days without asking
questions, except that

Fitch was too religious
at fruit or melons unless he knew
he had a straight record. We had
those days without asking
questions, except that

Fitch was too religious
at fruit or melons unless he knew
he had a straight record. We had
those days without asking
questions, except that

Fitch was too religious
at fruit or melons unless he knew
he had a straight record. We had
those days without asking
questions, except that

Fitch was too religious
at fruit or melons unless he knew
he had a straight record. We had
those days without asking
questions, except that

Fitch was too religious
at fruit or melons unless he knew
he had a straight record. We had
those days without asking
questions, except that

Fitch was too religious
at fruit or melons unless he knew
he had a straight record. We had
those days without asking
questions, except that

Fitch was too religious
at fruit or melons unless he knew
he had a straight record. We had
those days without asking
questions, except that

Fitch was too religious
at fruit or melons unless he knew
he had a straight record. We had
those days without asking
questions, except that

Fitch was too religious
at fruit or melons unless he knew
he had a straight record. We had
those days without asking
questions, except that

Fitch was too religious
at fruit or melons unless he knew
he had a straight record. We had
those days without asking
questions, except that

Fitch was too religious
at fruit or melons unless he knew
he had a straight record. We had
those days without asking
questions, except that

Fitch was too religious
at fruit or melons unless he knew
he had a straight record. We had
those days without asking
questions, except that

Fitch was too religious
at fruit or melons unless he knew
he had a straight record. We had
those days without asking
questions, except that

Fitch was too religious
at fruit or melons unless he knew
he had a straight record. We had
those days without asking
questions, except that

Fitch was too religious
at fruit or melons unless he knew
he had a straight record. We had
those days without asking
questions, except that

Fitch was too religious
at fruit or melons unless he knew
he had a straight record. We had
those days without asking
questions, except that

Fitch was too religious
at fruit or melons unless he knew
he had a straight record. We had
those days without asking
questions, except that

Fitch was too religious
at fruit or melons unless he knew
he had a straight record. We had
those days without asking
questions, except that

Fitch was too religious
at fruit or melons unless he knew
he had a straight record. We had
those days without asking
questions, except that

Fitch was too religious
at fruit or melons unless he knew
he had a straight record. We had
those days without asking
questions, except that

Fitch was too religious
at fruit or melons unless he knew
he had a straight record. We had
those days without asking
questions, except that

Fitch was too religious
at fruit or melons unless he knew
he had a straight record. We had
those days without asking
questions, except that

Fitch was too religious
at fruit or melons unless he knew
he had a straight record. We had
those days without asking
questions, except that

Fitch was too religious
at fruit or melons unless he knew
he had a straight record. We had
those days without asking
questions, except that

Fitch was too religious
at fruit or melons unless he knew
he had a straight record. We had
those days without asking
questions, except that

Fitch was too religious
at fruit or melons unless he knew
he had a straight record. We had
those days without asking
questions, except that

Fitch was too religious
at fruit or melons unless he knew
he had a straight record. We had
those days without asking
questions, except that

Fitch was too religious
at fruit or melons unless he knew
he had a straight record. We had
those days without asking
questions, except that

Fitch was too religious
at fruit or melons unless he knew
he had a straight record. We had
those days without asking
questions, except that

Fitch was too religious
at fruit or melons unless he knew
he had a straight record. We had
those days without asking
questions, except that

Fitch was too religious
at fruit or melons unless he knew
he had a straight record. We had
those days without asking
questions, except that

Fitch was too religious
at fruit or melons unless he knew
he had a straight record. We had
those days without asking
questions, except that

Fitch was too religious
at fruit or melons unless he knew
he had a straight record. We had
those days without asking
questions, except that

Fitch was too religious
at fruit or melons unless he knew
he had a straight record. We had
those days without asking
questions, except that

Fitch was too religious
at fruit or melons unless he knew
he had a straight record. We had
those days without asking
questions, except that

Fitch was too religious
at fruit or melons unless he knew
he had a straight record. We had
those days without asking
questions, except that

Fitch was too religious
at fruit or melons unless he knew
he had a straight record. We had
those days without asking
questions, except that

Fitch was too religious
at fruit or melons unless he knew
he had a straight record. We had
those days without asking
questions, except that

Fitch was too religious
at fruit or melons unless he knew
he had a straight record. We had
those days without asking
questions, except that

Fitch was too religious
at fruit or melons unless he knew
he had a straight record. We had
those days without asking
questions, except that

Fitch was too religious
at fruit or melons unless he knew
he had a straight record. We had
those days without asking
questions, except that

Fitch was too religious
at fruit or melons unless he knew
he had a straight record. We had
those days without asking
questions, except that

Fitch was too religious
at fruit or melons unless he knew
he had a straight record. We had
those days without asking
questions, except that

Fitch was too religious
at fruit or melons unless he knew
he had a straight record. We had
those days without asking
questions, except that

Fitch was too religious
at fruit or melons unless he knew
he had a straight record. We had
those days without asking
questions, except that

Fitch was too religious
at fruit or melons unless he knew
he had a straight record. We had
those days without asking
questions, except that

Fitch was too religious
at fruit or melons unless he knew
he had a straight record. We had
those days without asking
questions, except that

Fitch was too religious
at fruit or melons unless he knew
he had a straight record. We had
those days without asking
questions, except that

Fitch was too religious
at fruit or melons unless he knew
he had a straight record. We had
those days without asking
questions, except that

Fitch was too